

Ft. Toulouse Ft. Jackson

State Historic Site and National Historic Landmark

ALABAMA HISTORICAL COMMISSION

2017 Alabama Frontier Days (NOV 1st - 3rd)

- 1 Visitor Center
Special Exhibits/Sales Items/
Lost & Found/First Aid
- 2 Indian Village
Hunting Camps/Food-
ways/Archery/Stomp Dance
- 3-5 Fort Toulouse (1750s French Garrison)
Demonstrations/Food-ways
- 6 British Camp and Music Camp
Demonstrations/Music
- 7 Blacksmith, Woodworking,
Historic Fishing, Dying,
Spinning & Weaving,
Silhouette Artist
- 8 Bartram Nature Trail
- 9 Fort Jackson (1814 Tennessee Militia and US Army)
Demonstrations/Foodways/Children's Activities

Stage (See Entertainment Schedule)

P Pavilion

R Restrooms/Portalets

Entertainment Schedule

9:30AM PAUL & KIM CAUDELL, Music (Stage)
10:00AM CREEK STOMP DANCE (Indian Village)
10:30AM RODNEY THE YOUNGER, Magic (Stage)
11:30AM GRAYHAWK PERKINS, Storytelling (Stage)
12:30PM RODNEY THE YOUNGER, Magic (Stage)
1:00PM CREEK STOMP DANCE (Indian Village)
1:30PM GRAYHAWK PERKINS, Storytelling (Stage)
2:30PM COMMON STOCK, Songs & Fun (Stage)

INDIAN GAMES take place Wednesday through Friday in the field next to the Period Traders.

LIVING HISTORY PARADE takes place Friday at 11:30AM.

PERIOD MUSIC is performed throughout the day at the stage and at the MUSIC CAMP between the French Fort and the main park road.

CANNON FIRINGS AT FORT TOULOUSE

9:30AM, 11:00AM, 12:30PM, 2:00PM

Park Time Line

1680 AD The Alabama people occupy the site.

1717 AD French arrive and build the first Fort Toulouse along the banks of the Coosa River.

1751 AD French complete the third and final Fort Toulouse just south of the previous two forts.

1763 AD French are defeated by Great Britain in the Seven Years War and this area becomes part of the British colony of Georgia.

1763 AD Creek people establish the town of Taskigi.

1775 AD William Bartram visits this site.

1814 AD General Andrew Jackson arrives and builds Fort Jackson as a staging area for military operations along the Gulf Coast. Treaty of Fort Jackson signed on August 9.

1817 AD Fort Jackson is abandoned by the United States Army. Alabama becomes a territory.

1819 AD Alabama becomes the 22nd state.

ALABAMA FRONTIER DAYS is a cooperative effort of many volunteers & professionals. The presentations are made possible through the efforts of the FRIENDS OF THE FORTS, THE CITY OF WETUMPKA, and our dedicated volunteers.

FORT TOULOUSE-FORT JACKSON PARK

National Historic Landmark and property of the Alabama Historical Commission